Alison McElveen
Chief Executive

BACKGROUND

FSNI is an Executive Agency within the Department of Justice, employing approximately 175 staff, and providing a wide range of scientific services and expertise to assist in the investigation of crime and the presentation of scientific evidence in court. The Agency is an independent organisation providing a service to its main customers, the Police Service of Northern Ireland, the Police Ombudsman for Northern Ireland, the NI State Pathologist as well as a number of other customers in NI and further afield.

The Agency provides a full range of forensic science services through its operational casework sections, each of which consists of a number of teams which focus on a particular forensic science discipline. FSNI enjoys an international reputation for its breadth of expertise and experience. FSNI's primary purpose is the provision of effective scientific advice to support the delivery of justice.

The casework in FSNI is distributed between a number of Reporting teams and one, the Road Traffic Collision (RTC) Unit, is responsible for the scientific investigation of fatal and serious road traffic collisions in Northern Ireland. The Unit currently employs six full-time Reporting Officers and one Laboratory Assistant.

The Unit provides a full out-of-hours on-call service to deal with serious road traffic collisions and urgent work. Therefore, the post-holder will be expected to drive to live collision scenes throughout Northern Ireland, often during unsociable hours and at weekends, on bank holidays etc. Collision scenes can be distressing and very often the person/s fatally injured will be present during the examination. Therefore, resilience is required when dealing with such scenes. The scene examination and follow-up vehicle/component examination may also be physically demanding.

Following the examinations, the post-holder will provide a collision reconstruction report in the form of a witness statement and will regularly provide expert opinion evidence at coroners, criminal and civil courts, generally under cross examination.

KEY RESPONSIBILITIES

As a court reporting officer (RO) the post holder will be involved in identifying, gathering and assessing relevant scientific information during the course of their investigations with the purpose of providing expert opinion ultimately to a court. They will be expected to keep an open mind and have an impartial but informative approach when dealing with casework. Sound scientific knowledge and skills will be supported by good oral and written communication skills which will allow the post-holder to communicate scientific findings to non-scientists, both orally and in writing, and a high level competence in these skills is expected.

The main duties of the posts will include:

- Examining live collision scenes, often during unsociable hours, to include the road topography, vehicle rest positions, signage and road surface condition coupled with the detection and recording of all relevant collision marks and debris and conducting scene tests using specialist equipment which you will be required to transport to collision scenes and other locations. Often the person/s fatally injured, will be present at the scene and resilience is required when dealing with such scenes. The scene examination may also be physically demanding. You will work as part of a team at the scene to include a Senior Investigating Officer, police photographer, crime scene surveyor and Road Policing Officer.
- Liaison with the Senior Investigation Officer to establish lines of inquiry and advising them on the scientific/engineering aspects of the investigation.
- Attend post-mortems as and when required.
- The examination of collision vehicles and the examination in the laboratory of recovered components to ascertain if these are relevant to the collision reconstruction. Vehicle and component examination may be physically demanding.
- The calculation of vehicle speeds using a variety of methods.
- The application of computer software to assist in the process of accident reconstruction and modelling.
- The downloading and interpretation of digital data from collision vehicles.
- The reporting of collision investigations in the form of a witness statement and the provision of expert opinion evidence to the courts, generally under cross-examination.
- Effective management of workload, competing priorities and urgent work whilst meeting time pressures.

- The supervision of the examination work of support staff and line management duties where applicable.
- Leads/Supports the delivery of projects delivering changes to products and services within RTC and wider agency initiatives.
- The flying of an unmanned aerial vehicle (drone) to capture aerial images of collision scenes and vehicles in accordance with Civil Aviation Authority rules.
- Fulfil legal and professional obligations expected of an expert witness and FSNI officer in line with the code of ethics.
- Ensuring all relevant standards (e.g. ISO/IEC 17025) are adhered to in relation to casework.
- Ensuring all policies and procedures in relation to Health and Safety, Equality, Diversity and Welfare are adhered to.

This list is not meant to be exhaustive but to give a good indication of the main duties relating to a typical range of posts. The emphasis on specific duties will vary over time according to business needs and as directed by Line Management.

TERMS AND CONDITIONS

There are currently 3 permanent, full time vacancies.

The successful candidates shall be members of the Northern Ireland Civil Service and employees of the Department of Justice.

Further appointments may be made from this competition should NICS positions become vacant which require the same eligibility criteria and have similar duties and responsibilities.

Location

The postholders will be based at Seapark, FSNI, 151 Belfast Road, Carrickfergus, BT38 8PL.

It is envisaged that some element of home working and / or remote working may be possible in line with the NICS Hybrid Working policy and business need once initial induction and training has been completed.

Salary

Salary will be within the range £32,880 - £34,011 (under review) within which pay progression will be performance related.

Starting salary will be at the minimum of the scale. If the successful candidate is an existing civil servant, normal pay on promotion/re-grading arrangements will apply.

It is intended that these appointments will be at Higher Scientific Officer (HSO), with opportunity for advancement to Senior Scientific Officer (SSO). However, any such advancement will depend on the postholder being able to demonstrate that they have acquired the necessary experience and level of competence to perform the work at the higher grade. Assessment will include successful completion of their training, a recommendation from line management and a formal interview.

(The Senior Scientific Officer pay scale is currently in the range of £40,300 - £43,191 – under review)

Allowances

In addition to basic salary, overtime and scene attendance allowances will be payable as the position requires attendance at Road Traffic Collision scenes, many of which occur outside normal working hours. Whilst not guaranteed, potentially this could be in the region of an additional £5,000 in year 1 and £8,000 in year 2.

Pensions

The NICS offers all employees an attractive pension package. You'll find further details on the Civil Service Pensions (Northern Ireland) website at www.finance-ni.gov.uk/civilservicepensions-ni

Holidays

In addition to public and privilege holidays, currently 12 days, the annual leave allowance will be 25 days, rising to 30 days after 5 years' service.

Hours of Work

The normal conditioned hours of work are full-time (37 hours net) Monday to Friday. Most offices work flexi-time. However, the NICS offers a range of flexibilities to enable a better work-life balance for employees.

The Unit provides a 24/7 out-of-hours on-call service to deal with serious road traffic collisions and urgent work. Successful candidates will be required to support an on-call rota. Therefore, the post-holder will be expected to drive to live collision scenes throughout Northern Ireland, often during unsociable hours and at weekends, on bank holidays etc.

Travel

The appointee will be expected to visit collision scenes, vehicle recovery premises, courthouses, State Pathologist's Department, PSNI stations and in exceptional circumstances travel in PSNI vehicles as and when required. They will also be expected to travel to Great Britain and further afield (necessitating overnights stays) when required for training purposes.

The successful candidate must have access to a form of transport which will enable them to fulfil the duties of the post in full. The successful candidate would be expected to have permanent access to a vehicle for travel to road traffic collision scenes. Travel expenses will be reimbursed in line with NICS Travel and Subsistence Policy

Vetting

For Higher Scientific Officer (HSO) posts in the FSNI the level of vetting is Counter Terrorism Check (CTC). Obtaining these clearances is a requirement of the post and should clearance not be obtained you will not proceed further in the competition.

Medical

The successful candidate will be required to undertake a compulsory medical examination for Colour Blindness as part of the pre-appointment enquiries.

DNA Sample

Scientists at the laboratory examine evidence from the scenes of crime and materials removed from persons suspected of having been involved in crime. The results of the examinations, after objective expert evaluation, may subsequently be given as evidence in a court of law.

The sensitivity of current DNA testing is such that it is essential to guard against the consequences of inadvertent contamination of casework material by staff members.

The successful candidate will therefore be required to provide a DNA sample for elimination purposes. The sample and resulting profile will be retained securely and will only be used for this purpose.

To Note: If successful in this competition, we will aim to complete all preplacement checks and security clearance as soon as possible. However this can be a time consuming process and we would ask for your patience and cooperation throughout. To help minimise any delay in appointment we would appreciate it if you could respond promptly to any requests for information related to these enquiries, including notice period and also inform HRConnect of any change in your circumstances.

Probation

Confirmation of appointment will be dependent upon the satisfactory completion of a probationary period of 1 year. If performance, conduct or attendance during this period is not satisfactory the appointment may be terminated. All appointees will be expected to demonstrate a track record of effective service within this period.

Training

Successful candidates will be required to undertake ongoing training to ensure that their knowledge and skill set is up to date.

Career Development

The NICS is committed to career development and offers attractive career prospects across a wide variety of roles and professions. Career development is an integral part of the performance management system. Personal Development Plans identify learning and development needs with a view to enhancing skills and capabilities. NI Civil Servants have access to a wide range of internal job opportunities, including secondments with external organisations and are encouraged and supported in proactively managing their career.

Conflict of Interest

It is a basic requirement of all Civil Servants that their private activities should not bring them in to conflict with their official duties.

Conflict of Interest is not limited to the individual's own private, financial or other interests, as family, friends and associates may also have dealings which affect the Department's business directly or indirectly. Therefore to avoid any conflict or potential conflict and to demonstrate impartiality to the public at all times, an officer must not, without prior approval, engage in any activity which could be considered to be in conflict with official business.

As such, to protect employees and the Department from public criticism, it will be mandatory for the successful candidate to complete a Conflict of Interest declaration on appointment.

NICS COMPETENCY FRAMEWORK

The selection process will assess candidates against the NICS competency framework at level 3,

The NICS competency framework sets out how all NICS employees should work. It puts the Civil Service values of integrity, honesty, objectivity and impartiality at the heart of everything they do, and it aligns to the three high-level leadership behaviours that every civil servant needs to model as appropriate to their role and level of responsibility: Set Direction; Engage People and Deliver Results.

Competencies are the skills, knowledge and behaviours that lead to successful performance. The framework outlines ten competencies, which are grouped into three clusters. The competencies are intended to be discrete and cumulative, with each level building on the levels below i.e. a person demonstrating a competency at level 3 should be demonstrating levels 1 and 2 as a matter of course.

The Northern Ireland Civil Service competency framework can be accessed via www.nicsrecruitment.org.uk

It is important that all candidates familiarise themselves with the competency framework as this forms the basis of selection process. Should you require assistance in accessing the competency framework please contact HRConnect.

GUIDANCE FOR APPLICANTS

INTERVIEW PREPARATION

If this is your first experience of a competence-based interview, bear in mind that it does not require you to:

- Talk through previous jobs or appointments from start to finish;
- Provide generalised information as to your background and experience; or
- Provide information that is not specifically relevant to the competence the question is designed to test.

A competence-based interview does however require you to:

- Focus exclusively, in your responses, on your ability to fulfill the competences required for effective performance in the role; and
- Provide specific examples of your experience in relation to the required competence areas.

In preparation for the interview you may wish to think about having a clear structure for each of your examples, such as:

- Situation – briefly outline the situation;
- Task – what was your objective, what were you trying to achieve;
- Action – what did you actually do, what was your unique contribution;
- Result – what happened, what was the outcome, what did you learn.

The panel will ask you to provide specific examples from your past experience to demonstrate the range of behaviours associated with the competences being assessed. You should therefore come to the interview prepared to discuss in detail a range of examples which best illustrate your skills and abilities in each competence area. You may draw examples from any area of your work / life experiences.

For professional and technical posts, questions may be framed in the context of professional elements of the post.
